

MEDICAL CODING SPECIALIST, DIPLOMA

Medical Coding Specialist, Diploma

Overview

Medical Coding Specialists work closely with other healthcare professionals in coding diagnoses and procedures on patient medical records, analyzing medical records for completeness of documentation, working with insurance companies, and reimbursement procedures.

Locations

Canby, Granite Falls, Jackson, Online, Pipestone, Worthington

Prior knowledge of the basic elements of word processing, spreadsheets, databases, and document integration, along with the basic concepts of graphics, telecommunications, and the Internet are recommended.

Recommend taking this degree with Healthcare Administrative Assistant, Diploma, or A.A.S.

Course Number	Course Title	Credits
	Fall - Year 1
HC 1151	Body Structure & Function	3
HC 1180	Medical Terminology in Healthcare	2
HIMC 1150	Introduction to Medical Coding, Billing & Insurance	3
ADSM 1120	Medical Office Procedures	4
	Credits Fall - Year 1	12
	Spring - Year 1
HC 2120	Disease Conditions	3
HIMC 1100	CPT/HCPCS Coding	3
HIMC 1110	Diagnosis Coding	3
HIMC 1120	Procedure Coding	3
	Credits Spring - Year 1	12
	Fall Year 2
HIMC 1140	Introduction to Health Records & Delivery Systems	3
MEDA 2135	Pharmacology	3
HIMC 1130	Advanced Coding	3
HIMC 2125	Medical Coding Board Review	1
	Credits Fall - Year 2	10
	TOTAL CREDITS	34

