
SECTION HEADING

ALDC 1000: Introduction to Substance Use Disorders

Description

Introduction to Substance Use disorders will provide a comprehensive understanding of substance use disorders, fostering empathy, knowledge, and awareness. Exploring the multifaceted aspects of addiction and its impact on individuals, families, and society.

Credits

3

Prerequisite

None

Corequisite

None

Topics to be Covered

1. Definition of Addiction
2. Signs and symptoms of addictive behaviors
3. Definitions of PAWS
4. Effects of substance use on body systems
5. Process of change
6. Relationship of substance use and social determinants of health

Learning Outcomes

1. Create tailored treatment programs and continuum of care for client
2. Identify the signs and symptoms of various types of addiction, including Post-Acute Withdrawal Symptoms (PAWS).
3. Analyze the effects of addiction on the individuals, families, and community.
4. Demonstrate awareness of how cultural factors influence treatment and addiction.
5. Describe key concepts, theories, and models of addiction.
6. Evaluate different treatment options and interventions, recognizing best practices through evidence-based protocols
7. Articulate ethical issues related to addiction treatment and research understanding informed consent, confidentiality, and professional boundaries

Credit Details

Lecture: 3

Lab: 0

OJT: 0

MnTC Goal Area(s): None