

SECTION HEADING

CJS 2300: Patrol Operations

Description

Patrol Operations introduces students to the basic principles of patrol operations. Students will develop an understanding of patrol work including responding to calls, investigations, and enforcement of various laws and the functions needed to carry out these duties by applying knowledge learned in other criminal justice courses. Students will be required to practically apply the knowledge and skills learned throughout the Peace Officer program by successfully completing reality-based training exercises in a patrol setting.
