
SECTION HEADING

CST 2900: Computer Technology Capstone

Description

Computer Technology Capstone serves as the Capstone for the Computer Technology Program. Designed to integrate all prior learning and includes studying for and taking the appropriate assessments as determined by the computer division and advisory committees. Students will complete a technology project that can include on the job training, a technology project or technology research.

Credits

2

Prerequisite

CST 1500

Topics to be Covered

1. Networking concepts
2. Computer Repair concepts
3. Information Security concepts
4. Technology as a career

Learning Outcomes

1. Demonstrate knowledge of Networking concepts.
2. Demonstrate knowledge of Information security concepts.
3. Demonstrate knowledge of Information technology careers.

Credit Details

Lecture: 2

Lab: 0

OJT: 0