SECTION HEADING

HIMC 2115: Computerized Health Information II

Description

Computerized Health Information II introduces health information practices in the application of concepts, methods and structures related to the health information management work setting. Various applications used in health information will be studied. Students will select and prepare for their professional practice experience. Including background studies and health history forms.

Credits

1

Prerequisite

HIMC 2110

Topics to be Covered

1. Virtual HIM systems

2. Prepare for professional practice experience

3. Complete background studies

4. Complete health history forms

5. Complete resume

Learning Outcomes

1. Utilize health information management systems.

2. Complete background studies for professional practice experience assignment.

3. Complete health history forms for professional practice experience assignment.

4. Complete professional resume for professional practice experience assignment.

5. Complete mock interview for professional practice experience assignment.

Credit Details

Lecture: 1

Lab: 0

OJT: 0