SECTION HEADING

HIMC 2120: Quality Management in Health Information

Description

Quality Management in Health Information explores the theory, practice and management of quality performance and improvement through examination of peer review processes, applying quality tools, data analysis, and reporting systems.

Credits

3

Topics to be Covered

1. Performance and quality improvement models

2. Manage performance improvement and quality improvement enterprises

3. Monitor improvement functions

Learning Outcomes

1. Utilize health information management systems.

2. Report health care data through graphical representations.

3. Describe research methodologies used in health care.

4. Identify the components of risk management related to health information management.

5. Identify the impact of policy on health care.

6. Demonstrate fundamental leadership skill.

7. Utilize data-driven performance improvement techniques for decision making.

Credit Details

Lecture: 3

Lab: 0

OJT: 0