INDS 1101: Introduction to Indigenous Nations and Dakota Studies

Description

Introduction to Indigenous Nations and Dakota Studies (INDS) focuses on understanding the “pan-Indian” view of Indigenous people in a contemporary setting. The course materials will focus on the socio-political history of interactions between Indigenous people and settlers coming to the United States. Aspects of Indigenous epistemology, culture, and their complexities interacting in a modern-day world will be explored. There will be an emphasis on the Ojibwe (7 Council Fires)-(Eastern Dakota/Western Dakota/Lakota), highlighting their struggle and resistance throughout history. Sociopolitical ideas of settler colonialism, decolonization, and tribal sovereignty will be key frames of understanding throughout the course work. The coursework will benefit both Indigenous and non-Indigenous students alike -- unpacking generalizations, assumptions, and stereotypes that are continually perpetuated in mainstream society as well as providing a detailed history of the land in Mni Sota Makoce (Minnesota).
