

---

SECTION HEADING

LWMP 1002: Sheep Management Concepts

Description

Sheep management concepts will take an in depth look at strategic management and planning in a sheep enterprise. Students will study the trends in the U.S. and global sheep production resource management, strategic planning, and development of a management system. Students will also study financial measuring and monitoring methods.

Management Credits

2

Topics to be Covered

1. Budget planning and analysis
2. Developing a business plan
3. Measuring and monitoring financial performance
4. Sheep industry assessment
5. Strategic management

Learning Outcomes

1. Describe budget planning and analysis.
2. Identify criteria for selecting a lender.
3. Identify key components in preparing for a lender.
4. Describe farm financial performance standards.
5. Explain measuring and monitoring financial performance of enterprise.
6. Develop a business plan for sheep enterprise.
7. Explain resource management concept.
8. Identify components of a sheep industry assessment.
9. Describe strategic management and planning.