SECTION HEADING

LWMP 1102: Selection Methods

Description

Selection methods will study selection methods and concepts to improve flock productivity. Students will also become familiar with tools for genetic improvement and selection programs for economically important traits.

Management Credits

1

Topics to be Covered

1. Selection programs

2. Genetic improvement

3. Factors affecting genetic selection and methods of selection.

Learning Outcomes

1. Identify selection programs for commercial producers.

2. Describe selection programs.

3. Describe tools used for genetic selection.

4. Describe methods of selection.

5. Identify factors affecting genetic selection.