
SECTION HEADING

LWMP 1201: Sheep Behavior and Handling Methods

Description

Sheep behavior and handling methods will help students become familiar with sheep behavior and how to use these behavior tendencies to more easily work with sheep. The course will also study sheep handling system concepts, construction, layout and site selection.

Management Credits

1

Topics to be Covered

1. Sheep behavior
2. Principles of facility layout
3. Handling system design
4. Role of working dogs

Learning Outcomes

1. Explain how to match flock size and handling system design.
2. Identify the role of a working dog.
3. Describe handling setup designs.
4. Identify principles of facilities layout.
5. Describe sheep behavior and reaction.