
SECTION HEADING

LWMP 1302: Preventative Health Programs

Description

Preventative health programs will study basic disease control methods and flock health guidelines. Class participants will learn how to establish an economical year round flock preventative health program.

Management Credits

1

Topics to be Covered

1. Components of a preventative health program
2. Disease management principles
3. Management calendar for flock health practices

Learning Outcomes

1. Design a flock specific preventative health program.
2. Identify preventative health components.
3. Explain disease management principles.
4. Describe management calendar for flock health maintenance.