

SECTION HEADING

LWMP 2102: Sheep Production Records

Description

This course covers records needed to maintain a production history of a flock. Including records related to feeding, health care, lamb and wool production and losses incurred at various stages of sheep production cycle.

Management Credits

1