
SECTION HEADING

SBMT 1335: Teamwork

Description

Teamwork focuses on developing essential teamwork skills needed for success in today's collaborative environments. Students will explore key aspects of working effectively within a team, including communication, conflict resolution, leadership, and decision-making.

Management Credits

1

Prerequisite:

None

Topics to be Covered

1. Learn the tools and strategies to lead successful teams in various professional settings

Learning Outcomes

1. Understand and define the role of teams in an organization
2. Develop strategies to create high performing teams