

SECTION HEADING

SBMT 1561: Entrepreneurship - How to Start a Successful Business

Description

Designed to present students with an understanding of the venture startup process. Students will learn skills that help them develop their venture concept, research the market, and development of a feasibility study. Various exercises will provide self-employment assessment, feasibility considerations, venture planning, and creating a written business plan.

Management Credits

3