

SECTION HEADING

SBMT 2134: A/P Management

Description

In this course the business owner or manager will focus on compiling and managing the business's accounts payable and its impact on cash flow. The student will build different accounts payable reports and these will be used to determine business policy regarding payables and cash management.

Management Credits

2