

SECTION HEADING

SBMT 2262: Government Regulation & Tax Compliance

Description

This course covers government regulations and tax compliance issues that affect the operation of a small business. The student will learn about tax law and government regulations that apply to their business and about the impact these laws and regulations have on the business.

Management Credits

3