

SECTION HEADING

SBMT 2331: Market Research

Description

In this course the business owner or manager will conduct a market research project focused on an area of value to their business. They will learn some of the approaches to finding information and data regarding their business, their industry, and their products. From this the student should be able to search specific business issues, questions, and information.

Management Credits

1