

SECTION HEADING

SBMT 2334: Customer Service

Description

This course is designed to give additional skills to the business owner or manager that improve the customer service offered by the business. The course will focus on creating a customer service plan, training staff to deal with customer service issues, and identifying management procedures to maintain and improve customer service.

Management Credits

2