

SECTION HEADING

SBMT 2531: Business Communications

Description

This course is designed to improve communication skills of small business owners or managers. It will focus on both verbal and written skills for individual or group presentation. Students will be assigned projects using writing and oral presentation skills.

Management Credits

2