

SECTION HEADING

SBMT 2676: Data Base Management

Description

This course will focus on setting up, implementing, and maintaining spreadsheet software for students actively engaged in the ownership and/or management of a small business or business start-up. This course covers the use of data base management software for business applications.

Management Credits

2