

SECTION HEADING

SBMT 2681: Computerized General Ledger

Description

This course will focus on setting up, implementing, and maintaining a computerized general ledger for students actively engaged in the ownership and/or management of a small business or business start-up. This course covers the process of computerizing business records using computerized accounting software.

Management Credits

2