SECTION HEADING

SBMT 2682: Computerized Bank Reconciliation

Description

This course covers the application of computerized bank account/general ledger reconciliation. The student will be able to prove bank account cash balances using the selected software package. The course will focus on reconciling the business bank account to the general ledger for students actively engaged in the ownership and/or management of a small business or business start-up.

Management Credits

1